Dedication

THE CLASS OF JUNE, 1932
DEDICATES THIS PUBLI-CATION TO THE PARENTS OF THE PUPILS OF THE
SENIOR CLASS WHO HAVE SACRI-FICED AND PERSEVERED THAT WE MIGHT SUCCESSFULLY COMplete OUR HIGH SCHOOL EDUCA-TION. MAY WE PROVE WORTHY OF SUCH DEVOTION!

*We desire to express our appreciation to Mrs.
Balcom and Mr. Moyer, our class advisers, for their helpful interest and devotion to our
every effort and undertaking.*

Orient Staff

This is the first time since 1927 that the June class has published its own senior annual. This situation has resulted from the necessity of reducing the expenses of this publication in accordance with an agreement among the city high school principals.

The staff of the Orient has endeavored to edit a book that will be a source of gratification to each of you in later years. We have thoroughly enjoyed our work on the book and have progressed with the interest and suggestions from both faculty and students. We thank you, and hope that this annual will prove to be a book of worth and entertainment.

Drama

KATHERINE J. BURNS

Each Senior Class has been given the opportunity to present two plays during the course of their final year. Due to the unfortunate illness of our very competent director, Miss Katherine J. Burns, the class was forced to postpone its first production until the final term.

In February a record audience witnessed the successful presentation of our first play, "Here Comes Patricia," by Eugene Hafer. The plot was based on the caprices of Patricia Grayson, the governor's daughter. The erection of a gas station, the action resulting from a chopped-down orchard, and the startling revelation of the identity of the station's proprietress—all these lent the play a humorous atmosphere.

In April came "Fowl Play," a novel production somewhat along the musical comedy lines. The story centered around a group of college students accused of the theft of four prize chickens. This theme gave rise to several unique advertising schemes sponsored by the class, which contributed in no small way to the success of the play. Three live chickens and one rooster were awarded to pupils for prizes, as well as a number of complimentary tickets for "Fowl Play."

It was due to the efforts of Miss Burns that we were able to present these two plays in one term. Each member of the cast worked diligently so that he, too, might further the dramatic achievements of the June, 1932 class. We wish to thank her for the helpful interest and understanding that she has shown in working with us.

Music

DUANE HASKELL

Under the leadership of Mr. Mook and Mr. Haskell, the musical organizations of East High School have been outstanding in the city. Through the directors' inspiring leadership, the musical groups have attained extraordinary popularity with the student body and faculty.

Mr. Mook has been with East High School since the autumn of 1930. During this time he has completely reorganized the vocal groups, among which are the A Capella Choir, the East High Singers, the Chorus, and the Quartet. Among the many noteworthy appearances of these groups were the Easter program and the German assembly. The annual spring concert held June fourth was the outstanding musical event of the year.

East High School is exceedingly fortunate in having as a director of vocal music one who enjoys such unusual distinction. Combining sympathetic and forceful leadership with genuine musical artistry, Mr. Mook has given the school a record of permanent achievement.

In the instrumental field East High has always maintained a prominent position in the city. Since Mr. Haskell came in February, remarkable innovations have occurred. The orchestra membership has been increased to fifty-six; the band has taken part in the general assemblies; and a new orchestra specializing in the playing of the latest and best popular music has been introduced. These various instrumental groups have appeared at two special assemblies, the Memorial Day assembly, graduation program, German assembly, the two senior plays, and the Memorial Day parade.

In the brief time that Mr. Haskell has been with us, he has accomplished outstanding results. The interest and enthusiasm which the student body and faculty have manifested, clearly reflect his unusual qualities of leadership. Possessing tremendous zeal and a sincere desire to make music a living, vital part of the school, he has given a new impetus and meaning to our instrumental organizations. With an enviable record both as a professional musician and artist, he is an asset to any school. East High School is grateful for the vital part music is taking in our lives.

JAMES FOWLE

The man directly responsible for the success of our basketball teams for many seasons past is James "Doc" Fowle. With three veterans and substitute material from last year's squad our team won second place in the league competition this year. Doc has done much to further school interest in basketball.

ROBERT MC KAY

LILLIAN WANGMAN

Miss Wangman has aroused interest among the girls by organizing basketball and baseball teams considered as extra curricular activities. These interclass squads have entered whole-heartedly into the athletic program for this year, a program so admirably devised by their instructors.

Badminton, swimming, and archery have progressed remarkably this past year under the able tutelage of Miss Wetherell. The enthusiasm of the girls for the comparatively new game of badminton has caused the gymnasium to be crowded. Miss Wetherell has been convincing in her belief that an athletic program is essential to the success of a girl's activities.

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

TROY, NEW YORK

Engineering, Architecture
Science and Business Administration

THE Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute was established at Troy, New York, in 1824, and is the oldest school of engineering and science in the United States. Students have come to it from all of the states and territories of the Union and from thirty-nine foreign countries. At the present time, there are more than 1600 students enrolled at the school.

Four year courses leading to degrees are offered, in CIVIL, MECHANICAL, ELECTRICAL, and CHEMICAL ENGINEERING, in ARCHITECTURE, and in BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, PHYSICS, CHEMISTRY, and BIOLOGY. Graduates of the engineering courses are prepared to take up work in any branch of engineering. Graduates of the course in Architecture are prepared to practice their profession in any of its branches. Graduates of the course in Business Administration are prepared for careers in business or for the study of law. Graduates of the courses in Physics and Chemistry are fitted for research and teaching in these fields, as well as for practice in many branches of applied science. The course in Biology prepares for research and teaching, for work in sanitary engineering and public health, and for the study of medicine and dentistry.

Graduates of any of the above courses may continue their work in the Graduate School of the Institute. The Master's Degree is conferred upon the satisfactory completion of one year's work and the Doctor's Degree for three year's work.

The method of instruction is unique and very thorough, and in all departments the laboratory equipment is unusually complete.
